

Declaration of Dependency on Jesus

For our spiritual and personal well-being, we will Depend on Jesus.

For our mental, emotional, and physical well-being, we will Depend on Jesus. For the health of our relationships, we will Depend on Jesus.

We will Depend on Jesus for all we have. We will Depend on Jesus for all we desire to have.

When faced with temptation, we will Depend on Jesus.

If we fail to overcome temptation, we will Depend on Jesus. If we succeed in overcoming temptation, we will Depend on Jesus.

During times of need, we will Depend on Jesus. During times of abundance, we will Depend on Jesus.

In our joy, we will Depend on Jesus. In our sorrow, we will Depend on Jesus.

When we feel courageous, comfortable, composed, and certain, we will Depend on Jesus.

When we feel fearful, overwhelmed, embarrassed, or doubtful, we will Depend on Jesus.

If we struggle with sin, we will Depend on Jesus. When we are delivered from a sinful struggle, we will Depend on Jesus.

If someone sins against us, we will Depend on Jesus.

Through pain or pleasure, in loneliness or during fellowship, while feeling discouraged or encouraged, we will Depend on Jesus.

When we feel confused, anxious, or insecure, we will Depend on Jesus. When we have clarity, peace, and confidence, we will Depend on Jesus.

Despite our gains and losses, our defeats and accomplishments, our successes and failures, we will Depend on Jesus.

While seeking love, truth, and wisdom, we will Depend on Jesus. While embracing our unique purpose and our God-given identity, we will Depend on Jesus.

Against all the spiritual forces of evil, we will Depend on Jesus. As we pursue our Christ-given missions, we will Depend on Jesus.

NOT BY MIGHT NOR BY POWER BUT BY GOD'S SPIRIT, I WILL DEPEND ON JESUS!
